There are slashed skirts, buttoned for ordinary wear, which may be unbuttoned for purposes of boarding a street car. The modistes say they're too extreme for Omaha.

The lackets are graceful cut-aways, following closely the Russian and Bulgarian ideas and give a new and novel touch to feminine apparel.

There are buttons in profusion. Ratine or eponge, which looks a tot like Turkish toweling, will be very popular lids spring, also bright bedforf cords, as well as the more modand cords, as well as the more mod-

St. Mary's Avenue Congregational to Do Institutional Work.

THREE PLANS ARE SUBMITTED

Scheme is to Be Able to Care for the Institutional Work and to Practically Rebuild the Church.

In the report rendered by the improve ment committee of the St. Mary's Avenue Congregational church, which was appointed to investigate the considerity of carrying on institutional work in this city, plans for three means of procedure for the work's preparation are set 10rth. First, the setting up of a two-story building of Gothic style on a lot east of the present church, the remodeling of the front of the church to conform with that of the new building, together with several improvements within the church, at an estimated cost of about $45,000. Second, to construct a new church along the lines of modern ecclesiasti al arch'tecture on the east lot, which would have a seating capacity of 400 people, and would cost in the neighborhood of $42,000 Third, the building of a temporary structure, containing a gymnasium. amusement rooms, etc., and remodel the old church to fit demands. This would cause an expenditure of not less than $8,000. The committee of investigation unanimous in its approval of the sec and scheme, which embodies all the advantages of the first and would give the church an entirely new home.

Right to Pew in Church is Being Contested in Court

Right to sit in a pew at the Jewish synagogue at Nineteenth and Burt streets was in issue in court this morning in a suit which Julius, Joseph and American Revolution were the guests of Mrs. Clara Rubenstein, widow of their broher, in connection with the latter's estate. The president and secretary of the synagogue were on the stand, but the question became so involved that pews are rented and others owned by

Why I Give My Wife Free Rein

Lots of people wonder why I give my wife free rein, and let her do anything she wants about the home. Shall I tell you why? It's because I know she's got good business sense and knows what she's about.

She runs the home just the way I run my business, just as economically and perhaps a little bit more successfully. When she buys her household supplies, does she go to the store and pay top prices for them? No, indeed. She buys them diregt from the factory and sets just twice as much for her money. For three or four years now she's dealt with Larkin Co. and every couple of weeks sends them an order for teas, groceries, soaps and other things she needs around the house. I thought it was all foolishness at first until she proved to me how much it saved her and how much better we could live.

What I can't understand though, is why every woman doesn't do what she does. My wife tells me that anyone can get a Larkin Catalogue D 29 and learn all about this money-saving plan, simply by writing to Larkin Co., Peoria, III. Why don't you get your wife to do this? It will not only save you money, but will enable her to have a sittle extra cash of her own, and he lots happier and better off for it.
